

KaBOOM! University of Play Heads to the Big Easy!
Announcing the KaBOOM! University of Play (U Play!) February 8-10, 2007, in New Orleans.

U Play!, the award-winning 3-day training, provides all the tools and resources you need to promote play and build great playspaces such as playgrounds, skateparks, sports fields and ice rinks. At U Play! you'll learn firsthand how to create incredible transformative community-built playspace projects in your neighborhood!

Join KaBOOM! in New Orleans as we continue to support the hopes and dreams of kids and communities in the Gulf and across America.

Attendees of U Play! will:

- Learn how to create a great playspace
- Participate in workshops, led by experts, on every aspect of building a playspace (best practices, finding volunteers, resources and funding)
- Get the facts on why play is vital and how to rally your community
- Learn from playspace designers, funders, and successful community build playspace organizers
- Receive the latest information about KaBOOM! Challenge Grant opportunities
- Receive the KaBOOM! Toolkit a step-by-step manual on playspace planning
- Build an actual playground
- Hear nationally renown speakers motivate and inspire on topics from community organizing and fundraising to the importance of play!

Register Today!

Standard Rate $495

Nonprofit $295

Early-bird $195

Buddy rate $95 (for each additional registrant from the same organization)

Early-bird registration deadline is December 12, 2006. U Play! attendees also receive a discounted hotel rate of $129 per night. Reservations must be secured by January 12, 2006 to ensure this special group rate.

Scholarships are available.

Register today and learn how to create a great playground for your Club!. For more information, e-mail uplay@kaboom.org or call us at 202-659-0215.