

Wednesday
NOVEMBER 26,
2008

Editor:
Kathy Ropp
843-248-6771

All About Us

HAVING A YARD SALE?

Be sure to attract a crowd by placing a powerful ad in the Horry Independent.

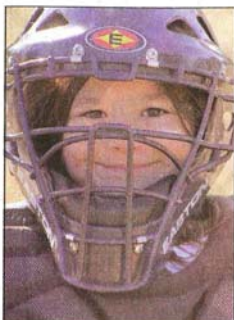

843-248-6771

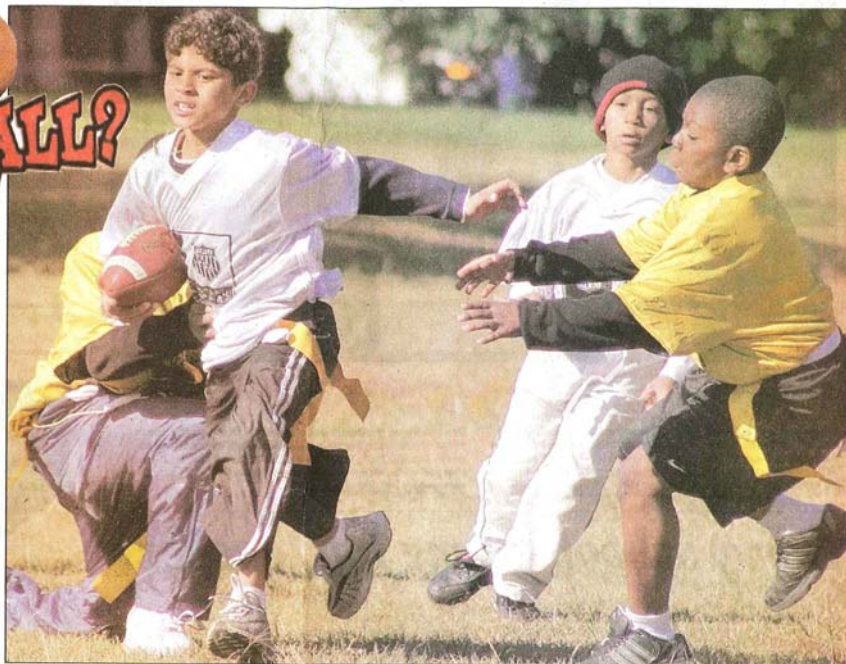

www.horryindependent.com B1

THINK YOU KNOW FOOTBALL?

The Salvation Army Boys and Girls Club of Horry County held its annual flag football and softball tournaments this past Saturday in Myrtle Beach. Following the games, the hungry players and their families were treated to a traditional Thanksgiving dinner in the gym of the Horry-Georgetown Technical College Criminal Services Building.

Catcher Emily Burch waits behind the plate for the next pitch.

McKinley Hood tries to maneuver his way around a couple of opponents without having his flag pulled.

PHOTOS BY ROBERT ANDERSON

Center Ben Smith waits on quarterback McKinley Hood's call to snap the ball during Flag Football game.

Synodia Davis keeps a watchful eye on the action taking place on the softball field.

Janiah Davis takes a healthy cut at the ball during the Salvation Army softball game.

Opposing players congratulate each other after a hard-fought Flag Football game Saturday.